The American Identity

We must knit together, combine ourselves together,
pledge to each other,
for our better living and peace.

Security

To form a more perfect Union - to prevent misconstruction by a foundation on principles and organized powers.

Freedom

The eyes of all people are upon us,
as a city upon a hill,
as our seed may live,
our life, our prosperity,
peace throughout the nation.

Our Protection -

by guarding, defending and respecting our establishment,

Where all men are created equal.

Freedom of speech

speak don't listen

you have the right to remain silent we are humans so we have rights with those rights we have laws with those laws we have privileges with those privileges we have freedom with freedom we have independence with independence all men are created equal with all men are created equal we have life liberty and pursuit of happiness with life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness we have no soldier shall in time of peace be quartered in any house without consent of the owner

it is the right of people to alter or to abolish it and to institute a new government facts be submitted to candid world tyranny over these states

freedom of speech

3.

The Congress shall have Power To Lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts,
We the People,
Shall have Power,
To alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, Whenever any form of government become destructive to these ends,
We the People,
Conclude peace, Contract alliances, Establish commerce,
To form a more perfect Union,
Establish Justice, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, Among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness,
The eyes of all people are upon us.

When, in the course of human events,
That all men are created equal,
We the people of the United States,
Whose names are underwritten,
Shall be thought most as free and independent,

In order to form a more perfect Union,
We mutually pledge to each other,
Our lives,
Our fortunes,
And our sacred honor,
For that every man might have need of others,

In addition to,
Being delighted to show forth the glory,
That secures these rights,
To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper.

Loyal Subjects, by the Grace of God

Defender of our Faith and the Honor of our Country in the Presence of God and one another

we must be knit together, so that the rich and mighty should not eat up the poor,

There are two rules whereby we are to walk one towards another:

Justice and Mercy

We must uphold a familiar commerce together in all meekness, gentleness, patience and liberality

We must delight in each other; make others conditions our own;

rejoice together, mourn together labor and suffer together as members of the same body.
